How To Do Topiary: A Beginners Guide

Synopsis

How to do Topiary: A Beginners Guide Tells the beginner and enthusiastic gardener how to create topiary from scratch or from specimens bought at a garden centre. It covers topiary made from different types of trees and bushes as well as Moss Topiary where plants are molded around a medium. It shows you the best trees and bushes to buy, when to clip or form them and what time of year is best to do the work. It discusses the freeform art of topiary as well as that of using preformed frames and even gives you a list of major gardens throughout the world to give you some inspiration.

Customer Reviews

Beginners Guide ! not much how to or this is how it should look. .

This booklet is a simple, quite short overview. If you are looking for something detailed, this book it is not for you
