Customer Reviews

I read this book hoping to find some information helpful to traveling in Central America. I really don't see how bragging about averaging "a bottle of rum a day" is helpful. Don't waste your time.

I read every post on their blog and am very excited to read even more detailed information on their trip to Nicaragua! I have just started the book but so far its great! I admire what you guys are doing and can't wait to hear about all of your other adventures!

I hope the sequel is readable. The author cannot write and the book offered nothing to the reader. The best part of the book is it's small size.

I enjoyed reading about Michael and Rebecca' adventures. It would be a good read for those traveling in Mexico and Central America, but also for anyone setting out on travel adventures...I picked up quite a few good ideas.

A pretty decent expanded blog post. I'm familiar with several of the places mentioned and Ms Olson did a good job of describing them.

Very well written! If you're interested in traveling to Nicaragua, or just traveling period you need this book! A major bonus the writing is quite witty! Never having been to Nicaragua myself, this book definitely stirred my interest beyond that of my soul always wanting to travel!
