Angela Dusenberry lives Hawaii with her husband and their three children. She attended Calvary Chapel Bible College and has written over 180 articles for magazines such as: Valley Parent Magazine, Christian Monthly, Shine Magazine and Christian Ed Publishers. She has also held editorial positions at Valley Parent Magazine and Christian Monthly.

My niece loves the Undercover Angels books. Read it in half of a day!

I read half of the first chapter and am looking forward to reading it to my 9 year old daughter. It is encouraging to see a book geared to young girls that doesn't just have a positive message but illustrates how to live out your life as a Christian.

What a refreshing story line of kindness and Christlike responses, even when it is tough! Great lesson for children and adults!

My little sister (12 years old) really likes the Undercover Angels books. She has requested more of them!!

Being in OR the last 40 years I can relate to the places the girls are. This is a good series I think I will get for my granddaughter.

I chose this rating because before I got my kindle I didn't read all that much. Now that I have it I can't put it down

When I was in Jr. High, I didn't know how to live as a Christian during times when I had problems with friends or questions about boys. A book like this would have been so helpful to me. It is the next book in the Undercover Angels Series, and deals with Kayla and her friend problems and boy problems. Because Kayla wants to live for Jesus, readers get to learn ways to deal with the difficult Jr. high years. I would especially recommend this book to kids who go to a public or private school, as it deals with things that are most common for kids in those situations.
