Customer Reviews

Marlon Lodge, the founder codirector of Earworms Learning, is an author, linguist, and language trainer of many years' experience. He lives and works in Dusseldorf.

I love this! Fast delivery. Great product.

The music's volume was too high compared to the narration. That made the music a distraction and unhelpful. It's not traditional German music either, it has some heavy metal, Spanish guitar, Scottish pipes, etc. Also, the PDF workbooks can't be used unless the PDF CD is in your PC, which doesn't help when you need the CD-ROM for the lesson disc. You could rip the lesson CD to your Media Player to free up your disc drive for the workbooks, but you shouldn't have to do that. I didn't. The entire first disc teaches superficial yet useful travel-related phrases, many of which didn't apply to me. "To the hotel please," or "I want a Pils, wine, beer, etc. please." For those planning to move to Germany or those who want to attempt a substantial conversation in German, this CD won't prepare you for it.

I really like the recordings and feel I have been learning the information well. It's mostly travel related phrases and isn't a complete set of phrases but they are helpful. Listening to it really makes the commute to and from work go by fast. Only problem I can see is the CD titles don't follow the order of the pdf text booklets that go with the disk. If you want them to match so it's easier to follow along with the booklet you'll need to rip the disk to your computer and changes the track properties to match the booklet.
