Love this series of Cookbooks. This one is especially great because it covers so many different types of meals. Enjoy

Gooseberry patch one of of my favorite.

Gooseberry books always have a variety of recipes good for just about any occasion or taste preferences it looks good.

Love all Gooseberry books...they are recipes from down home cooks around our great country.

Lots of nice recipes and pictures of the recipes. As always, Gooseberry Patch cookbooks are great!

gooseberry patch never lets me down!

I received this as a gift and it's very dissapointing. Cobbled together mismash of any old recipies. I know casserole refers to the dish, but many of the included recipies wouldn't be considered casseroles by most cooks. Just to give one example Baked bacon and egg potato skins. Bake potatoes, slice in half and scoop out centre and discard. Scramble eggs in a skillet. Add scrambled eggs and cooked and crumbled crispy bacon to skins, bake for further 10 minutes. They are probably very nice, but have no place in a book called 'casseroles'.
