Yep

Synopsis

Yep is a black sheep, and he thinks that is great. He likes to sit with the white sheep in the green grass and make some fun at the clear waters. Even when the road gets dark and all sorts of dangers threaten Yep and the other sheep they stay calm. They know their shepherd always takes good care of them and will be watching over them. This was the special offer book during the action of the Christian Children's Month with theme 'Music'. It is an picture book that refers to Psalm 23, and music plays an important role in the story. The story itself is of the famous Flemish writer Sylvia Vanden Heede, the cheerful drawings are made by Marieke Ten Berge. It is designed for children aged 4 to 6 years.
