Customer Reviews

66 pp/ plus facsimile of the autograph manuscript.

My daughter's violin teacher asked us to purchase this book. There are cheaper publishers/versions out there, but her teacher really preferred this one: the International Music Company version. I'm taking one star off only because it was the most expensive music book I've ever purchased at $27 plus shipping costs! On the plus side, it is a solidly packed book with 66 pages of music and an additional 21 pages of Bach's original music manuscript--which is pretty cool.

The painstaking edition efforts of Mr. Galamian have paid off in the well-deserved use of this book in almost every major conservatory. Fingerings and bowings are updated to suit modern instruments, but it provides a facsimile of the music in Bach's own hand as well, for anyone who wants to go back to the source. Of course, one should think for him/herself when playing, but Galamian has written down immensely helpful fingerings for tricky passages, which might be considered not idiomatic on the violin.

This version was edited by Ivan Galamian, one of the great violin teachers. There is also a facsimile of the autograph manuscript at the back of the book.

Perfect unedited throwback to the Bach original.

Bomb ass music.

Just what my daughter wanted. Good price.

Very good

It is not new and used goods have been delivered. ...I feel bad. but delivering is like.
