Buenos Aires Unanchor Travel Guide - Best Kept Secrets: 2-Day Itinerary

Synopsis

Buenos Aires Best Kept Secrets: 2-Day Itinerary Buenos Aires, the name evokes images of tango, steak and fútbol. But there is so much more to this rich and beautiful city that goes beyond any tourist brochure. Truth be told, there is something for everyone whether you are a nature lover or a tango aficionado. Most people know where to find Evitas grave in the Recoleta Cemetery but not everyone can say that they've been to see "Floralis Generica" (a giant metal flower that opens and dawn and closes at sunset), the Botanical gardens or even the Evita Museum. And where in the world is Parque Tres de Febrero and what exactly is it? The itinerary consists of a balanced mix of museums, popular attractions, parks and hidden gems that most tourists miss as well as an appendix full of secrets about the city that only an expat would know. There are even places on the itinerary that were a surprise to my Argentine friends who are native to Buenos Aires that they didn't even know about. The added bonus to this itinerary is that a good amount of the attractions are not only fantastic but free as well :) When I first landed in this city in 2009, it was then that I realized how rich, complicated, and fascinating Buenos Aires was. Selecting the right guide to take with me before I left home made all the difference and I saw and experienced things that went beyond cliché tourist traps. My guide kept me busy every single day for a whole 6 wks for hours and hours per day. Because of that experience, I have always valued and understood the power of a good guide and when my turn came, I wanted to use my knowledge of the city to make sure that others are spending less and having more fun than they could possibly dream of in a city that never sleeps.....

A very well laid itinerary for a couple of days in Buenos Aires. Reading this quick guide gave me a good starting point for exploring the city.

This guide combined with the other guide I purchased, Buenos Aires Made Easy made me feel well informed before getting to Buenos Aires and help me pick my best places for day trips within the city.

I've traveled to many locations and this guide is very helpful! I love how it gives the price of the attractions as well as the durations. It's easy to use and concise, containing all the important information any tourist would need. Great itinerary! Would recommend it to anyone traveling to Buenos Aires!!
