Customer Reviews

I bought this for my daughter for Christmas and she really likes it!

going to go ahead and use these. Still looking for more difficulty.

Keveren is a very skilled arranger. Nice choice of hymns with nice arrangements. I am using this with siblings that are piano students of mine. It is advanced intermediate level. (Level 4 Faber would be comfortable with this difficulty level--maybe 3B)

My sister and I (both older adults) thoroughly enjoyed these intermediate level hymns. I am definitely the weaker player but could manage the bottom part fairly well. What a fun thing to do as sisters!!

Mr. Keveren has devised some clever approaches in these duets. They are rhythmically fun but not exhausting for the late intermediate level pianist.

had a hard time finding something that was in my range of ability and still sounded professional.....love it and so does my duet partner.....and they sent it quickly and in good shape.....love the old hymns and so does our congregation....fits the bill

Phillip Keverin' s arrangements are always good and accessible for most church pianists. This duet collection lived up to all my expectations.

I took private lessons for 8 years and did plenty of duets with my piano teacher and other students. I could not stand how this book was set up. Very hard to follow the flow of music. Normally Primo and Secondo parts were on completely pages. This is not the way I am used to piano music. Definitely would not recommend.
