Plebeian Power: Collective Action And Indigenous, Working-Class And Popular Identities In Bolivia (Historical Materialism Book)

Synopsis

Best known for his role as Evo Morales's vice-president, Álvaro Garc a Linera is also known across Latin America as one of Bolivia's foremost intellectuals. With a theoretical trajectory beginning in efforts to combine Marxism and Indianism, then developed in reaction to the neoliberal turn of the 1980s and in contact with the mass social movements of recent years, Garc a Linera's magisterial Plebeian Power can be read as both an evolving analysis of Bolivian reality through periods of great social change, and as an intellectual biography of the author himself. Informed by such thinkers as Marx, Bourdieu and Ren  Zavaleta, Garc a Linera reflects on the nature of the state, class and indigenous identity and their relevance to social struggles in Bolivia.

 lvaro Garc a Linera has been vice-president of Bolivia since 2006, and is a prominent intellectual force in the Evo Morales government. He has written extensively on the indigenous question and class and communal politics in Bolivia, including Horizontes y l mites del estado y el power (2005) and Forma Valor y Forma Comunidad (1995, 2010).

Poorly written with the typical utopian glasses of the pseudo-socialists, all lip service. The author lied about obtaining a degree in mathematics and sociology when running for office. What can you believe from him after that? I will give mine away....to a circus an unbelievable initiative done from a man who is one of the most corrupted politician in Bolivia, who has been helping a massive cocaine production thanks to money laundry killing hundreds of innocent people just because they didnt follow his "political views".This guy has not even finished college, and just for "being a Vice-president" he thought it will be ok to give master classes in a University in La Paz, Bolivia. Really????
