With a background in hand-drawn animation, Aron Nels Steinke began self-publishing comics in 2006 with the help of a grant from the Xeric Foundation. Aron's all-ages graphic novel, Neptune, was published in 2009 by Sparkplug Comic Books and Tugboat Press. Currently, he spends his days as an elementary school teacher and his nights writing and drawing his next book. He lives in Portland, OR with his wife and three cats. The author lives in Portland, OR.

My 2 1/2 year old son loves this book and requests it at bedtime. We gave this as a gift to a 2 year old girl and her mom wrote us and said she loves it. RANT: I *LOVE LOVE LOVE* read/singing kids books to children. I used to volunteer to do it at a bookstore. But honestly, the story falls a little short and the meter of the prose isn't rhythmic or interesting to read aloud (or perhaps I just haven't found it yet). I really love the illustration, style and typography but I wish the story was more focused on a "crazy cat dance" like the title suggests. Even the story says something like "oh yeah the cat dance." I'd support this author and buy more of his books, but I must say it's not the best kids book ever.

This book is essentially a long poem about a young girl and her love of cats. Much in the style of prose like the legendary 'One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish' by Dr. Suess, Crazy Cat Dance has fat cats, long cats, purple cats, and a few dogs too. This book is part of the Balloon Toons series by Blue Apple Books. Each book features simple, easy to read texts and cleverly drawn artwork. With only one panel per page, the art in this book was very clean and animated. An extremely whimsical book with very cute rhymes that reflect the actions in this fun book. The age range of this book is for readers 6-9. But, this type of book will appeal to cat lovers of all ages. This includes my wife, who in no way is what you'd consider a comic book reader. Yet, as I described this book to her, she declared that The Super Crazy Cat Dance sounds like the type of cat book not only that she'd like to read but also own! Praise from Ceasar!!!

Every kid I've read this book to loves it! They roar along with the kids and the cats. The illustrations have so much detail, the kids spend a long time pointing out different things they see. It is like a comic book in its layout but is definitely a kids' picture book. Totally great book!

I read this book aloud to both my godchildren and my neighbors. Even the older kids, the chapter book readers, came around to listen. This book is rhythmical and clever, charming to read aloud, and the children loved the illustrations. It makes a perfect gift.
