Customer Reviews

excellent book for the serious harmonica player moving into bluegrass.

This book is tremendous resource for any harp player, but it is particularly useful if you've learned to play improvisational blues and are looking to expand into bluegrass/old-time styles. It's remarkable that Glenn includes tabs for two different styles of play ("single note" vs. "tongue blocking") and two different harmonica tunings (the "standard" Richter tuning, and the newer Paddy Richter).
