Customer Reviews

I love my We'moon calendars. I get both wall calendar and the spiral planner each year. I would never give it anything less than 5 stars. Now that all said, I have to relay that the 2018 change of paper in the spiral planner is disappointing, to say the least. Instead of the quality, glossy paper of years past, it's a matte, thinner paper that not only does not do the beautiful artwork justice, but also is so thin that my coding system for work, using a permanent marker, shows through to the other side of the paper. Not good. It has never been a problem before this. Please consider going back to the original paper in 2019. I love We'moon so much you'll probably always have me as a customer, but please don't stay with this inferior paper. Thank you.
