I'm using these cards with my 3 1/2 year old who is starting to learn to read. There are 54 cards, with the letter(s) on the front and a picture that goes along with how to pronounce them and on the back are additional example words that use the same phonic rule. The blends are very helpful when learning to piece together words in order to read them more quickly, but some of these cards included in this deck are single letter phonics that would do better as part of an alphabet deck, like pronunciation of consonants "D" and "S." There's also only one pronunciation of "Y" (which actually has four pronunciations). I was hoping for more consonant and vowel blends, endings, or prefixes to help with more complex pronunciation (oa, wh, ew, ay, un, ed, ing, tion, eigh) than what is included in this set. The single letter cards seem redundant if your child already knows the alphabet sounds. Still there are a number of cards that are helpful while trying learn some phonics that we will end up pulling out to use as our main deck. It would have been helpful to know which cards were in this deck before purchasing it, so I've included them here. Here are the letters included in this set: A (short), A (long), B, bl, br, C (hard), C (soft), ch, cl, cr, D, dr, E (short), E (long), F, fl, fr, G (hard), G (soft), gl, gr, H, I (short), I (long), J, K, L, M, N, O (short), O (long), oo, P, qu, R, S, sh, sl, sn, sp, st, sw, T, th, tr, U (short), U (long), V, W, X, Y, Z

Great educational tool for both my 4 year old niece and 3 year old nephew! Haven't done the lower case alphabet yet, so that was very confusing to them to see on the cards. All in all, a great tool!

Every combination of cards my 2nd grader needed, less than half the price of local educational kid stores locally, plus no hassle at the malls and no missed time with work or family. 90% of what we need for our large family can be dropped at your door, and the prices are even better when you consider the time that is saved which translates into more money since time=money. Glad to have behind every purchase I make. Now, if you start selling cars, we'll be totally covered. Happy Holidays to all the Big A company employees!

Pretty good and workable.. We wanted flashcards for our 6 year old so she can study in the car or whenever idle time.. easily carry around and cute pictures. she was able to see and connect the spellings with different words. I think these are perfect for 1st graders but not 2nd graders

My 15 month old God Sun learned his letters and words with these cards, and now he is constantly talking. A great way to give your child or God child the early start to education

Our 3yo niece loves to read, and these phonics cards are helping her learn. These are fine, but I know there are better phonics cards out there.

Our daughter LOVES these and does very well with them. They helped launch her vocabulary and writing interest greatly.

These flash cards are terrific! My daughter will begin kindergarten in the fall, and she can recognize and write all of her letters (both uppercase and lowercase) but I believe it is also important that she learns the sounds each letter makes, and some phonics blends as well. These flash cards are perfect and serve their purpose well!
