Customer Reviews

I am relatively new to the wide and wonderful world of the Adult Coloring books and such. I have a wide variety of art supplies. If you came to visit my house as a child or an adventurous open-minded and creative adult, you would never want to leave. There are several types of paints, many types of markers, pens and drawing and colored pencils. I have many types of coloring books and paper. I have about 5 different types of adult coloring books. This particular book us called Botanical Gardens : Color your way to calm, Coloring Book for Adults. This adult coloring book comes with 12 pre sharpened coloring pencils: Black, Brown, Gray, Purple, dark and light Blue, dark and light Green, Red, Pink, Orange and Yellow. It also includes a shiny silver sharpener to keep your pencils nice and sharp so its easier to follow the lovely designs. This 8 X 8 inch coloring book provides 48 one sided and detachable immages on nice thick quality paper. There is a thicker protective card to place under each picture as you are working on it. This card not only keeps the next immage clean and free of marks from the page above but it also offers a smooth and even surface to draw on. This will also keep ink from bleeding through If you use ink or even gel pens or paints to color your page. Use your imagination, the pencils are included to get you started, not to limit your creativity. Each of the 48 Immages is unique and different, Immages include many different flowers, vines, leaves and butterflies. Some Immages are simple some intricate, all will transport you to the Botanical Garden and it's calming, colorful and beautiful world. 5 stars, I love it, wish it was bigger but this is a good quality coloring book. Disclaimer: I received this product free in exchange for my honest and unbiased review.

This is less of an adult coloring BOOK and more of an adult coloring SET. It is nice and compact and very easy to travel with. The colored pencils and pencil sharpener keep nicely in their built in the built in storage case. Each pencil is securely gripped inside, so if you were in a car or airplane, they wouldn't be rolling all over the place. While I wouldn't call them the best quality colored pencils I have ever used, they are certainly good enough to get the job done, especially if you are using this set as a meditative or anxiety reducing tool. There are 48 beautiful square shaped pages printed on a nice, thick paper. The pages are bound like a gummy pad on the top which is a really nice feature for my left handed child. Each page tears off easily. There is also an attached protective inlay card, which I think will come in handy whether I am using pens or colored pencils. Pens won't be able to bleed through onto the next page, and the pencils won't leave indentations on the next page if you press hard. The botanical drawings are intricate but not so complex that you can't enjoy coloring them. This set would make a great birthday or holiday gift for a traveler or someone who wants to get started with coloring. I could also see myself bringing this set to someone who is stuck in the hospital to give them something to do and cut down on the stress of being sick and stuck. I received this adult coloring set at a full promotional discount in exchange for my honest review.

Not enough different colors for the intricate drawings. I even got out my larger set of colored pencils and still couldn't find enough colors. It is good for people like me who as a child filled up coloring books.

This book is a great idea. It comes with everything you need to color on the go. The set includes 48 different botanical pictures to color ranging from fanciful to more realistic. It includes twelve colored pencils and a pencil sharpener with a clear plastic storage shell attached to the front cover. What makes it really special is the way it is designed. If you look at the product images you can see the coloring pages sit beneath a sheet of green cardboard directly opposite the colored pencils. This makes it easy to tear out the pages and use it as a coloring surface. It also comes with a sheet of white cardboard to place between the pages if you would rather keep your coloring pages intact. I keep my book in my purse for those times when I'm stuck somewhere I have to wait (dr's appt, tire changes). My children have long outgrown the idea of coloring and keep themselves occupied on their phones, but this would be a great idea to keep handy for younger children. There are several other titles available in the series.

the pencils are a little cheap and keep breaking before you even sharpen them, also some of the pictures are way to small to be colored

This was a gift for my sister and said it is her favorite. Many of the pictures are pretty enough for framing

I got this for my mother-in-law as a Christmas stocking stuffer... the price is nice and the pictures are beautiful... worth every penny.

Perfect travel set, or for a hospital stay! The whole thing is well thought out. The pencils are a surprisingly quality product and lay down a bright and uniform layer of color. Very nice gift too! will be ordering more of these sets in the future
