Customer Reviews

Since 1983, John Green has illustrated over 140 Dover coloring books, including many top sellers. With an array of titles from Ballet Class to Horses of the World, he has shown an amazing talent in a broad range of categories, and informative captions reflect his thorough research. The London-based artist has received commissions from most of the major UK publishers.

Its a beautiful book, and great for all levels...I DO wish it was printed on only one side of the page, but I make Card stock copies to paint, and keep my books clean and accident free.....I would have also liked it better if MORE modern horses were included. Like Smarty Jones, Zenyatta, etc.....And not so many obscure horses....Some of them were rather crudely drawn, some were beautiful.....All in all, I DO Like the book, and will have many hours of fun.....ALSO! Neither book had Bold Ruler, Northern Dancer or Three Bars in it. Some of the MOST influential sires of all time, (Three Bras influencing Quarter Horse racing).....In THIS Book, there is only 4 or 5 that aren't in the other book.. So you are getting a LOT of duplicates, which is wrong.....

what a fun coloring book - arrived packaged perfectly

Great drawings... not cartoony at all!

Love it, would have given 5 stars but has some of same drawings as 1st Famous racehorses. Would have loved to see the beautiful, amazing filly Ruffian. She was a champion, maybe next time

A lot of horses were in the other one I bought. Many duplicates. Would have liked to see some different horses such as some fillies.

Very cool book with lots of great horses great

A gift for my mother.....she really liked it.
