I enjoyed reading about Melissa's life journey so far. She told it in an interesting and very funny way. She has a great self deprecating humor.

not too much about Little house on Prairie, it was mostly about the author's life and how that show affected her every decision in life. And how Michael Landon shaped her inner self.

This was a gift for my daughter, who used to watch Little House religiously. Friendly writing style, nice to see her on tv now with a successful life and career, after learning all those lessons.
