Count down with Pete in this rocking new story from the creators of the bestselling Pete the Cat books.

Eric Litwin is a guitar-strumming, song-singing, banjo-picking, tale-telling, song-writing, national-award-winning, music-producing, fun, folksy type of guy. He loves to blend song and story together and is inspired by the depth and simplicity of folk songs and folktales. Eric is a popular performer, delighting thousands of children and families every year. He has recorded two award-winning children's music CDs. James Dean's art has sold in more than ninety galleries and shops across the United States. He has devoted his paintings to Pete the Cat for fifteen years and has turned his natural love for cats into his life's work. James published his first adult book, The Misadventures of Pete the Cat, a history of his artwork, in 2006. He illustrated his first self-published children's book, Pete the Cat: I Love My White Shoes, in 2008, and the follow-up book, Pete the Cat: Rocking in My School Shoes, in 2011. James lives in Savannah, Georgia, with his wife, four cats, and one dog. You can visit him online at www.petethecat.com.

Charming story about a chill cat--I always imagine him as a California hippie--who slowly loses the buttons on his shirt until he's left with just his bellybutton! The pictures are graphic and easy for kids to see, and there is a lot to discuss: numbers, counting, colors, etc. There is a song that the cat repeatedly sings - not sure what the "official" tune is but it is fun to make up your own. I have one song, my husband sings it differently, my mom yet a third way, and so on. It's all good!

This book was a hit with my 4 year old. I have also read this book to a group of about 10 kids between the ages of 2 and 6 and it also worked there as well. The book is repetitive, which is great with kids. After a few pages they will catch on to the pattern and begin singing along or shouting the number of remaining buttons. Tons of fun! The art is cute, the fonts are fun. I also love that Pete is a gnarly carefree American cat dude who skateboards and surfs. I got this book before I knew who Pete the Cat was, and I was also unaware that there is apparently an entire line of Pete the Cat products available. I haven't tried any of the other Pete the Cat books or products, just this one.

Pete progressively loses buttons off his favorite shirt. When the button pops off and rolls away, "does Pete cry? Goodness no! Buttons come and buttons go. He keeps on singing his song." Finally when all the buttons have popped off and rolled away, does Pete cry? Goodness no! He still has his Belly Button! Love love love this book and my Granddaughter loves anything and everything that's Pete related. His messages are consistently upbeat, relateable and relevant. Buy every book in this series!

My 2.5 year old son loves the Pete the Cat books. Wish they had a board book option, but hardcover helps. His teachers at daycare read these books to their class, so he came home asking for these books at home. Has not stopped reading them since (demands to have me leave one in his crib when I put him to bed, so he can try to read to himself). Check out the YouTube videos for the songs -- so cute, he sings them all the time.

Love Pete the Cat books and this one is adorable. My grandson and I were reading it for the first time and had a laugh out loud moment of enjoyment that we read again and again!

Pete is a resilient cat. He doesn't cry! Goodness no! A great book, along with the first Pete the Cat to teach children to not get too upset over the little things. This book has a great surprise that made kindergarteners, 1st graders and their teachers laugh with surprise. Great book that motivates my kindergarteners to read it over and over again.

This is THAT book you'll remember reading your sweet baby's face and him getting all excited screaming "Did Pete CRY?!"

This book is in my top two children's books. I just think it is a fun, vibrant book and I buy it for each new child in my life when they are born (along with the other book in my top two, the Gingerbread Man). There is even a video on YouTube about Pete the Cat and his Four Groovy Buttons that is really catchy and fun. Two children that are in my life because of two different friends see me and say "Pete! Pete!".. So we watch the video then read the book.
