World Executive Political Wall Map (Enlarged Size & Tubed World Map)

Customer Reviews

I purchased the larger size of this map. It has a matte type finish, which seems durable, but it is NOT laminated. It fits nicely on a $5 piece of foam insulation and looks great on a wall with some pins in it. Highly recommended for people who wish to pin their destinations or possess a highly detailed, tastefully colored map.

The "Traditional" that is sold by IS is laminated, but it is $48 which makes it steep for a map without a frame. The "basic size" and "enlarged tubed" that are sold by PosterRevolution are NOT laminated (I contacted them on 12/29/13 and they confirmed this). Their large size is $28 which is very steep for a non-laminated piece of paper. Maps, Globes, and More advertised the "enlarged tubed" as having "laminated paper," but they shipped me a non-laminated map. Had I not taken a screen shot of their description at the time I ordered it, I would have had to pay for return shipping out of my own pocket. Be aware that no one is selling a laminated version of the "enlarged tubed" map anymore. The laminated 48x73 map is AWESOME -- I've received tons of compliments on it and refer to it often. I had some leftover baseboard from my house renovation that I spray painted Dark Walnut and used to frame this map.....great way to dress a huge blank wall.

Great for my bedroom. I LOVE the colors and general aesthetics. If the font was any bigger it would look tacky in my opinion so it is perfect. I was looking for something that would cover my entire wall. This does not but I like it none the less. This was the largest map I could find that I liked and was affordable.

Great design, size & colors. Cities are listed, but hard to really zoom in to & see detail within each country, but great for general country & city listings.

We mounted this on cork board under my son's twin loft. It is practically the perfect size, in height and width. He LOVES it! The antique color/look goes well with the colors of his room (tan/beige, navy, and olive green). It is perfect for a boy's (of any age) room, office, etc. Very professional and well done. It arrived rolled inside a stiff plastic tube, and that was in a larger cardboard rectangle. We are VERY satisfied and thrilled.

Awesome map. I've had it up on my wall for years and people continue to compliment on how cool it is. It's large enough to decorate an entire wall. I often find myself staring at the map for a few minutes and realizing that I have a lot of work to do if I'm trying to see much of this world in person!

I was so pleased with this product! It came in a nice tube and packaged very beautifully. I had no problem getting the map out of the tube and once it was on my wall, it layed flat and was breath taking! I got this as a birthday present for my husband and I was worried about how it would make our bedroom look but I am so glad I bought it because it truly is beautiful! I really suggest if you are going to buy a wall map that you pick this one! It was all in one piece so there wasn't any kind of positioning it together. We took some thumbtacks and just placed it on the wall! Great product! :)

When i first opened the box from UPS the product seemed like it had been properly delivered as the outside box was completely dent free and had no signs of being tossed around before being delivered. However, upon further inspection of the actual product which was inside of a clear plastic tube i found the map to be dented in the middle all the way across (being its a 73" map that is a long way) and the map seemed like it had been jammed into the tube because the top of the map all the way across was scrunched over and ripped as if whoever packaged it was too lazy to properly package the map. Overall i loved the actual product but the lack of properly packaging is unsatisfactory, i'm going to return the product due to the severity of the damage being the map is 73"x49" so any damage will be easily visible.
