Book by Sanders, Toby

This is an awesome buy for any student of the variety arts. I'm a professional magician and bought the book for a trick found within, but this book delivered so much more. I found it to be a page turner. It breaks down everything you need to know and understand to ENTERTAIN audiences. You learn about comedy, costuming, props, and much more. I can't recommend it enough.

This lively book is the next best thing to a choice seat at a three-ring circus. Professional clown Sanders provides everything needed for entertainment except the usual bag of peanuts and popcorn. He shares information with amateurs so they may learn how to assemble costumes, apply makeup, work with animals, perform alone or with partner, become expert at balloon sculpture and know how to handle an audience. There are line drawings to help visualize, along with suggested scripts and a checklist of necessary items for tricks and puppetry. An invaluable aid for leaders of youth or families who share projects.

The newer books was hard to understand--this book made it easy and it had alot of useful information--excellent book!!!!

Is this about that clown who cut me off on the freeway yesterday? Or maybe it's that fat clown who got stuck in his movie seat right in front of me...perhaps it's the collective clowns who run this country...I tell ya, they're all a bunch of compleat clowns.
