A Microguide To Bordeaux By Bottlenotes

Synopsis

A Microguide to Bordeaux by Bottlenotes expands upon Bottlenotes's popular daily email newsletter about all things wine, The Daily Sip, offering a "sippable" snapshot of this iconic French wine region. This Microguide includes an overview of "Bordeaux basics." It describes the region's classic grape varieties; spotlights historic cities, towns and wineries; and recommends itineraries for two to five day trips. Perhaps most practically, the Microguide includes tips for enjoying Bordeaux wines at home, by providing guidance on which wines to buy and which foods to pair with them. After reading the guide, you will understand that this storied region currently offers some of the best "values" in the wine world. Contrary to popular belief, Bordeaux wines are not always expensive- and a trip to the region by no means out of reach. A Microguide to Bordeaux by Bottlenotes is a useful guide that will immediately inform your tasting, buying, and travel experiences

Customer Reviews

This microguide doesn't try to be a comprehensive, all-inclusive guide to everything Bordeaux. At well under 100 pages, the guide only skims the surface of an amazingly complex wine region.

However, each page is packed with essential information. And because the guide is so short, I came away with a good overview of Bordeaux in under an hour. For its purpose, the microguide does a 5-star job.

Not only a great travel guide, but also very informative guide to wine. All delivered in something you can read in its entirety over one (or two) glass of wine. Very enjoyable.

Very well written. Packed with useful info for the novice but even someone who thinks they know everything about wine can get something out of it. Look forward to sharing this with friends so they can enjoy learning more about a region most may never get to visit in their lifetime. Hopefully there are plans for other regions in the near future.

A quick read and well written essay on Bordeaux. Another beautiful book from Chelsea Print and Publishing! Looks like my wife and I need to visit the region...

Clear, concise and just enough visual/literal content to satisfy my penchant for photography and wine. Worth every penny and more!

Like the succinct style and specific wines. Will use this guide when I travel to France for a wine tour.

Wonderful basic introduction to Bordeaux wines and farms.

Great seller!
