Music is a huge part of Jewish tradition. I loved reading about the different prayers featured in this book, and the thought-provoking essays from the various authors. Great gift, too!

The essay "What Chanting a Prayer Might Just Do for You" included in this book just won First Place for Essay in A Book in the New Mexico Press Women Communications Contest.

Interesting read about how synagogue singers bring intention to their work.

The book was so completely warm and comforting to read. It went way beyond my expectations.
