This book has been a favourite for many years. Unfortunately could not find a new copy I could afford BUT very happy with the condition of the used copy I recently purchased. Story written in poetry is humorous, illustrations great and for the time it was written delivered a great message about conservation - of course still relevant today.

A beautiful teaching resource.

Couldn't get one of these in Australia. Really happy with it. Thanks.

Great environmental message.

Great condition.

I bought this to read to someone and they love the story. It is a great bedtime story for children.
