There are many cultural things to see and do in Dublin, and if you want a break away from the noise of the city, there are some lovely parks such as Phoenix park and Stephen's Green park. There are also some nice scenic spots in the coastal areas. Dublin has a good transport system, so it's easy to get around. It is a city that has changed a lot in the last few years, but still holds onto its history. This can be seen all around you. The nightlife is simply fantastic, and there are some really great Comedy Clubs here. I would recommend Comedy Crunch, where you even get a free ice-cream during the break! The Irish are a lot of fun, and really friendly. If you just take the time to talk to them, you will find they have many great stories to share!
