Funding Sources For Children And Youth Programs

Synopsis

Funding Sources for Children and Youth Programs is a directory that provides a bountiful amount of information about public, private and governmental funding opportunities for grant seekers. From tips on writing grants to more than 3,000 annotated records that provide the grant's focus and goal, program requirements such as eligibility, funding amounts and deadlines, the sponsor's name and address and other contact information, restrictions, and much more. The ninth edition of this directory includes detailed indexes by subject, program type and geographic area, published in support of helping readers find the most appropriate and applicable funding opportunities in program areas such as child and youth services, family-strengthening activities, prevention of teen pregnancy, drug and alcohol addiction and violence.
