Cambodia: Practical Tips For Travelers

Synopsis

Practical tips for travelers exploring Cambodia, from Phnom Penh to the ancient temples of Angkor, a floating village, Buddhist temples, the Royal Palace complex and much more. Nearly 100 color photos and maps. Included, too, are useful notes on the culture and interesting things to see on your journey. This book gives you great advice on preparing for your trip to Cambodia, traveling inside Cambodia, lodging, dining, shopping, health, and points of interest. This is the book you should read BEFORE you go!

Customer Reviews

Brief read that highlights with photos the major sites to see in Cambodia. No info on hotels, eateries, bars, clubs, or guide companies. For that info, purchase the Lonely Planet Guidebook. Happy travels.

Elinor LeBraron's book on Cambodia gives you a good idea of what to see and how best to make your way in this land of ancient treasure--even in the rainy season. With its "practical tips" you will avoid bureaucratic problems that beset people without the right forms and information. The "packing" section is very helpful, with notes on new and useful fabrics for use in tropical climates.

This book answers the first-time visitor to Cambodia question, " what are the basic things that I need to know?" It's an easy quick read that you can finish on the flight there. I found it very helpful thank you

Pertinent information that is quickly and easily read. Pictures show appreciation for the culture while giving the tourist a desire to visit. Thank you!

Great read - looking forward to going to Cambodia and other countries in SE Asia in March. Looks like an awesome country

Well organized, clear, concise guide to Cambodia with practical tips. Contained beautiful pictures and humorous tips on cuisine, such as deep fried tarantulas.
