DARIAN RODRIGUEZ HEYMAN is an accomplished fundraiser, social entrepreneur, and author. His work "helping people help" started during his five-year tenure as Executive Director of Craigslist Foundation, where he launched their Nonprofit Boot Camp. He edited the bestselling book, Nonprofit Management 101: A Complete and Practical Guide for Leaders and Professionals (Wiley), after which he co-founded the global conference series Social Media for Nonprofits. He also co-founded Sparrow: Mobile for All and served as a Commissioner for the Environment for the City & County of San Francisco. He is a frequent keynote speaker at nonprofit, fundraising, youth leadership, and environmental events around the globe and thrives on connecting social change leaders to the best practices, resources, and contacts needed to maximize impact.

A really helpful guide. I'm on the board of an organization that is struggling with fundraising, and the information in this book has been so useful.

Well written and full of good information. A general overview with some elements touching on board development. A good primer for a new nonprofit.

This book offer a clear introduction to the skills for fundraising, plus adds resources for digging deeper into the key principles introduced.

I was very pleasantly surprised to see that this resource is quite useful and efficiently presented to support quick access to great tips and guidance.

Great Condition!

Very Incisive. Good info.

Great read

I have not even made it though half of the e-book and I think I want a paperback version. Amazing book with many good ideas. It has taught me a new way to fundraise and I can hardly wait to try it out. I have even explain to friends my findings. Darian thank you for such a wonderful resource.
