Estonia 1:400,000 & Tallinn 1:8,000 Travel Map

Synopsis

The Baltic States are a treasure trove of history, architecture and culture as well as nature diversity. Estonia, a state occupied and ruined by the Soviet Union for five decades, has quickly become a well developed country with its current membership in NATO, European Union, Schengen area and Eurozone. This double sided map includes a road and travel map of Estonia at the scale of 1:400,000 on one side and a detailed street plan of historical Tallinn 1:8,000 on the other side. The road map is a high quality cartography of European origin and distinguishes roads ranging from motorways to other categories. Legend includes railways with station, national parks/nature reserves, viewpoints, scenic spots, touristic sites, churches, monasteries, fortresses, castles, ruins, museums, monuments, windmills, hotels, filling stations, camping sites, watermills, spas, beaches, international airports. The street map of Tallinn (1:8,000) has a large inset of the Old Town (1:4,000) and was designed for exploring the city on foot. Includes also Tallinn's Transit map. Extensive name index for each side.
