Customer Reviews

Aliann is married to the chieftain and also has magical abilities. Aliann and Killian adore each other with all their hearts and souls. I read this in one sitting, it was that good. The descriptions were wonderful along with the characters made it a mesmerizing reading experience. There was a section in the tale that was so sad, tears flowed. This is complex, there are so many pieces to put together and the author has done a marvelous job of making it even paced, smooth and concise story. Aliann is jealous and even though Killian has been faithful, when she becomes acquainted with one of his past lovers, not a happy camper. Also the past lover has darkness about her, black witch ? There are battles, intrigue, evil and death. I am captivated by the love and passion that was between them but the ending is kind of a cliffhanger. I highly recommend this book, I really loved it. This is a very racy story. I received this book from Net Galley and voluntarily reviewed.
