Dudley Murphy decided to become a lifelong collector of fishing lures at the age of 13, when his grandfather presented him with a gift of old Heddon, Jamison, and Clark lures. As one of the three founders of the National Fishing Lure Collector's Club, Dudley is an active collector with a variety of interest, including fishing. Springfield, Missouri artist Deanie Murphy was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and was married to Dudley in 1968. They are the parents of two adult children, Quinn and Jennifer. Deanie is also a musician, having played semi-professionally in a bluegrass band with Dudley for 10 years; she also does the typesetting and production for the NFLCC Magazine.

I wouldn't collect lures without this book. Perfect for my collection.

Son is a collector of vintage/antique sporting items, and I believe he will find this publication very useful for years to come. It seems very complete, and is an attractive book.

Of the three or four books I have on lures, this one is the most useful for indentifying the unkowns and obscure. Very easy multiple reference appendices, and great photos with an extensive (the most I've seen to date) listing of just about everything you'll run into. You can even find stuff just by free-scanning with your eyes if your sharp! Glad to have it!

Husband has alot of older fishing lures and reels this is just what he needed..

For the price I expected it to be more complete. For the information that was included it was laid out ok

GREAT!!

Great collection of photos, descriptions, etc of collectible lures.

I purchased it for my husband and he refers back to it often when looking at lurers on line before making a purchase.
