I loved this when it first came out. Some of it is a little dated now, but for baseball fans who came of age in the 50's and 60's and remember the 70's it's still great, and there was nothing like it at the time. For people who came later, well, the sardonic tone will be lost on you.

thanks

A "must read" for anyone who collected baseball cards in the 1950's and '60's. I first read this book 40 years ago and it is every bit as humorous and entertaining now as it was then.

This is, hands down, one of the best baseball books EVER! I love looking through the old cards and reminiscing with friends and family about ball players in the past."Goodnight Sibi Sisti... Where ever you are."

I owned this book back in the 1970's and must have read it a dozen times. It's obviously dated now but still just as hilarious.

brings back the good old days,some errors

Most enjoyable look back at what we did as kids! Authors' commentaries on some of the players are gems of humor!

Made me laugh, but a bit short.
