Managing Your Personal Finances (Financial Literacy Promotion Project)

Synopsis

While focusing on the student's role as citizen, student, family member, consumer, and active participant in the business world, Managing Your Personal Finances 6E informs students of their various financial responsibilities. This comprehensive text provides opportunities for self-awareness, expression, and satisfaction in a highly technical and competitive society. Students discover new ways to maximize their earning potential, develop strategies for managing their resources, explore skills for the wise use of credit, and gain insight into the different ways of investing money. Written specifically for high school students, special sections in each chapter hold student interest by focusing on current trends and issues consumers face in the marketplace.

Joan Ryan, M.B.A., Ph.D., C.M.A., has taught personal finance for over 20 years. She began at Willamette High School in Eugene, Oregon, where this textbook was initially developed and tested. After four years there, she taught in the business department at Lane Community College (also in Eugene) for 12 years. After eight years at Clackamas Community College, she was department chair for the next six years. Then she resumed teaching accounting, personal finance, and business law, retiring from full-time teaching in 2014. She also is a C.M.A. (certified management accountant), a state-certified mediator, and adjunct faculty at Clackamas Community College and Portland State University in the graduate Masters in International Management program.

I ordered a "very good" quality used book. Very good? I'd say usable. On the outside it appears good but once you start flipping through there are drawings in pen all through the book. I thought buying used would be good because there couldn't be anything worse than the schools right? Well I was right on that but it might as well be the schools...

very good quality

It helped with the course a great deal.

Thank you...will be using this next semester.

Great price for a rental book for school the seller got it to me on time and fast! there was no prolonged wait and it was the exact product that I paid for. It was actually better than what I could have hoped for!

The book came right on time for school even though my son doesn't start school for awhile I like to have all his books ready for him.

I received the used book today and it looked brand new. I love it. great job. awesome!!!!very satisfied with purchase
