This is NOT a new TACHS guide for 2018. The problems in it are the same as from a 2014 Peterson's publication I used with my older son. According to the Archdiocese of New York's website, the TACHS has changed and does not include some material in these Peterson's practice tests, such as the synonym section. Peterson's is recycling old material and branding it as new, which is a) pointless and b) unethical. Students need practice materials that reflect content on the current version of the exam, not the old version. I'll be returning this copy and looking to buy a different publication.

This book is outstanding for your rising eighth grader. Not only provides great measure of knowledge, it also provides great tutorials. We are using it for summer studies.
